Type of Incident: Common Law Robbery / Kidnapping

Date and Time of Incident: 4-23-12 / 1502hrs.

Location: 110 E. Fairfield Rd.

Incident Narrative:

The High Point Police Department received a 911 call from a citizen advising her vehicle had been stolen from the Food Lion parking lot located at 110 E. Fairfield Rd. The stolen vehicle had a 3-year old child and a 1-year old child in the backseat at the time the car was taken. An adult relative of the children was forced out of the car and was in the process of trying to get the kids out of the vehicle when the suspects sped off.

Officers were on the scene in minutes and began circulating the area in an attempt to locate the car and/or children. A call was received from a daycare facility on E. Fairfield Rd a few minutes later that two children had been found in their parking lot. Officers responded to the daycare and located the two children. Both were unharmed. Officers brought the parents to the daycare within minutes and they were reunited with their children.

A lookout was broadcast to numerous Law Enforcement Agencies. The vehicle was a 1991 Honda Accord (Tan). The vehicle has tinted windows and 18" chrome rims. The rims are described as having a black star in the middle of the rim. The license plate on the vehicle is ACH-7189.

The only suspect information available at this time is that both were white males believed to be in their forties.

This case is still under investigation and various leads are being followed.
